LABOR DAY VICTORY!

Staci Pla Conquers the Bear Trap and Claims the 2024 SFPGA Labor Day Classic Title

Staci Pla claimed victory at the 2024 South Florida PGA Labor Day Classic after three rounds on the PGA National's Champion and Fazio courses. As the third major of the SFPGA Junior Tour, the event presented numerous challenges, including rain delays, wet and windy conditions, play on a PGA Tour Championship course, and a competitive field of 157 top junior golfers from across Florida with only 53 advancing to the final round!

Despite the challenges, Staci demonstrated remarkable consistency throughout the tournament, leading after the first round and posting a two-under-par 70 in the second. With a five-shot lead going into the final round, she confidently said, "I knew that as long as I stayed strong, I could keep the lead." While her closest competitor struggled, Staci shot an impressive 3-under-par 69, finishing a commanding 12 strokes ahead of the field. This win marked her first on the SFPGA Junior Tour this season, following a runner-up finish at the South Florida PGA Junior Championship. "This victory was definitely due," Staci remarked.
